The IAF Space Society Committee

IAF Alliance

- British Interplanetary Society (BIS) and the NVR signed a MoU
- First of a series of such agreements between space society members, professional association members and space museum members

IAF Alliance

- There will be an “IAF Alliance Club” on social media where we can network, a kind of year-round IAC.
- We are negotiating with the IAF Secretariat about opening access to the past library of over 100,000 IAC papers to Alliance members – watch this space!

BIS offers

NVR members will be entitled to:

- Attendance at the BIS member's rate to all BIS Evening Lectures and One-day Symposia held throughout the UK
- Access to a hot desk with free wifi at the BIS HQ in central London
- Discounted rates for the hire of the BIS lecture rooms at the BIS HQ
- Access to the BIS library - the largest archive of space material within the space society community
- Access to BIS book and merchandise at member rates
